May It Please Your Lordship

I, Rajkumar Chauhaan, respectfully offer my unconditional and sincere apology to the Hon'ble High Powered Election Committee and to Your Lordship for any act, mistake, or misunderstanding on my part that may have caused concern or may be seen as a violation of the Code of Conduct for the Bar Council Elections.

I realised my mistake and will withdraw the calendar and will apprise this Hon'ble Committee and it was not done to garner votes and was only done in good faith. I have done it unintentional and please consider my heartfelt apology.

I further submit that, to the best of my knowledge, if any such calendars were distributed, it may have happened before the Model Code of Conduct came into effect on 29.11.2025. If any circulation took place after that, it was purely unintentional and without my knowledge. I sincerely regret the same. I assure this Hon'ble Committee that I will strictly follow the Code of Conduct and all directions issued from now onwards.

I respectfully request this Hon'ble Committee to kindly accept my unconditional apology and treat this as my main reply to the show cause notice issued to me.

With highest respect,
